Politics, Position, and Power The Dynamics of Federal Organization Second Edition

HAROLD SEIDMAN, University of Connecticut. Acclaimed as "one of the most important books in public administration in the last several decades" (American Political Science Review), this inside view of federal organization has now been revised and expanded to include new statistical and reference material as well as considerable analysis of President Nixon's experiences with reorganization, particularly his attempted "New American Revolution."

Spring 1975      340 pp.      cloth $7.50      paper $2.95

The Judicial Process

An Introductory Analysis of the Courts of the United States, England, and France

Third Edition

HENRY J. ABRAHAM, University of Virginia. Now completely updated, revised, and enlarged, the Third Edition of this standard work continues to offer a clear and thorough comparative introduction to the theory and practice of the judicial process in the United States, England, and France. Most of the book is devoted to a study of the United States judiciary with particular emphasis on the Supreme Court and judicial review.

Spring 1975      430 pp.      cloth $12.95      paper $5.95

In Search of American Foreign Policy

The Humane Use of Power

LINCOLN P. BLOOMFIELD, Massachusetts Institute of Technology. "Few Americans over the past twenty years have observed U.S. foreign and defense policies from inside and outside the government as closely and as wisely as Lincoln Bloomfield. . . . I suggest that anyone who wants to know what our national interest in foreign affairs really is—or should be—buy and read it."—Honorable Charles W. Yost, former U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations

1974      192 pp.      cloth $6.95      paper $1.95

Democracy and Disobedience

PETER SINGER, University of Oxford. "The purpose of the book is to consider the question: does democracy entail obligations to obey the laws which non-democratic systems do not? . . . The argument is careful, complex, and subtle, even though it is quite brief. It is an especially important book. . . . Singer has chosen to write an original work, and he has succeeded. This book is most suitable . . . for any topically oriented course in political philosophy—at any level."—Alan Wertheimer, University of Vermont, in Perspective

1973 (paper, 1974)      150 pp.      cloth $6.50      paper $2.25

Imperialism and Nationalism in the Fertile Crescent

Sources and Prospects of the Arab-Israeli Conflict

SIR RICHARD ALLEN. "I appreciate very much its thoroughness and its effort to present both sides within their historical context. . . . The historical account is well-written and covers the essentials. . . . The maps, appendices, and chronology are extremely helpful."—Arthur Goldschmidt, Jr., Pennsylvania State University

1974      640 pp.      5 maps      cloth $15.95      paper $4.95
